LIA LEWIS

AFTER A WEEKEND WITHOUT FOOTBALL, LIA SAYS THE WHOLE SQUAD ARE EXCITED FOR TONIGHT'S TOP-OF-THE-TABLE CLASH

Two long-range Fiona Barry goals helped The New Saints seal a 3-2 victory against Wrexham at The Rock.

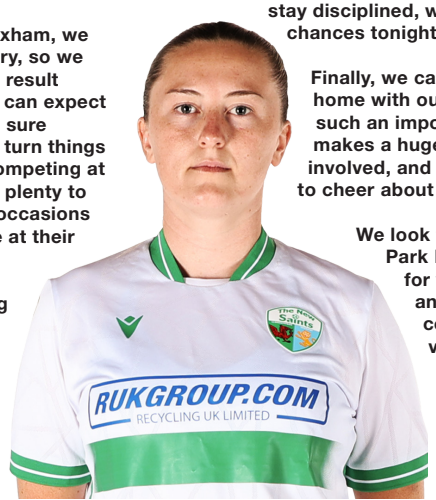

Tonight promises to be a big occasion as we welcome Wrexham for a top-of-the-table clash, with local bragging rights also at stake. Both sides will be eager to claim all three points, so we're expecting a competitive and exciting contest.

With so much riding on the result, your support could make a real difference as we look to make home advantage count.

After having last weekend off, it's great to be back at Park Hall, and we're all looking forward to getting out on the pitch in front of our supporters again. Our last outing ended with a convincing 6-1 cup victory against Wrexham Foresters, which was a positive result for us as a squad. It's always good to head into a break on the back of a win, and we'll be looking to carry that confidence into tonight's game.

The last time we faced Wrexham, we came away with a 3-2 victory, so we know what it takes to get a result against them. However, we can expect another tough test, and I'm sure they'll arrive determined to turn things around. With both teams competing at the top of the table, there's plenty to play for, and these are the occasions when everyone needs to be at their best.

For us, it's about embracing the occasion, matching the intensity and showing the quality we know we have. We need to use the atmosphere as motivation, compete for everything and stay focused on the job in hand. If we play our game, stick to our principles and show the right attitude and togetherness, we'll give ourselves a great opportunity to get the result we want. The key will be to stay disciplined, work hard and take our chances tonight.

Finally, we can't wait to be back at home with our supporters behind us for such an important fixture. Your support makes a huge difference to everyone involved, and we hope to give you plenty to cheer about this evening.

We look forward to seeing you all at Park Hall. Thank you, as always, for your continued support, and hopefully we can celebrate another important victory together!

IDDENDEN HAT-TRICK INSPIRES TROPHY WIN...

The New Saints were last in action two weeks ago when they picked up a 6-1 victory against Wrexham Foresters in the Genero Adran Trophy. It was a strong defensive display from the tier two visitors, who managed to frustrate their hosts in the opening half an hour. With 31 minutes played though, Fiona Barry did what she does best and broke the deadlock with a long-range strike from the edge of the box. Then, before the interval, Abbie Iddenden (pictured) completed a quick-fire hat-trick to seal the match ball and put her side firmly in control of proceedings. Kieran Lee-Birch's side increased their advantage further following the break thanks to goals from Caitlin Chapman and Lexie Harrison, before former TNS youth player Evie Wigley scored a consolation for the Foresters with a long-range effort of her own. The Saints will host Cardiff Met at Park Hall in the quarter-final on December 20th.

KIERAN LEE-BIRCH

THE SAINTS' HEAD COACH WANTS TO SEE HIS SIDE TAKE FULL CONFIDENCE TONIGHT FROM THEIR 100% HOME RECORD

Good evening everyone, and welcome to Park Hall for what promises to be a huge occasion as we take on Wrexham in a top-of-the-table clash.

We're proud to be hosting our biggest rivals in a televised encounter, with top spot up for grabs. These are the games you want to be involved in, and there is no doubt that today's fixture carries plenty of significance for both clubs.

Our last meeting with Wrexham produced one of the greatest victories in our club's history. On that occasion, the players gave absolutely everything, and the performance was a real reflection of the togetherness, belief and resilience within this group. We'll need to draw on those same qualities today if we are to get the result we want. We know Wrexham will be determined to respond, but we have every reason to believe we can rise to the occasion again.

We come into the game with a 100% record at Park Hall this season, and that is something we should take confidence from. We know what we are capable of on home soil. We are a strong, athletic and powerful side, with real quality when it comes to transitioning quickly and hurting teams.

On a pitch the size of ours, those qualities could be particularly important tonight. We need to be brave, make good decisions and take our opportunities when they come.

It's also worth recognising the position we have worked so hard to put ourselves in. We are competing at the top of the table against a club operating with a budget five or six times the size of ours. That is not something we use as an excuse - it makes what this group has achieved all the more impressive. We have earned our place in this contest through our performances, commitment and determination, and we have no intention of stepping aside.

There is also the opportunity to complete a phase one double over Wrexham for the first time, which would be another significant achievement for everyone connected with the club.

For everyone at the club, these are the occasions we work towards. We know what is at stake, but we also know the importance of enjoying the occasion, playing with confidence and showing everyone what this group is capable of.

Thank you, as always, for your fantastic support. Let's make Park Hall a special place to play today, get right behind the team and give the players that extra push!
